Detailed Report:

Our college organized the programme on Success Manta for Career Development in association with Nilaya Foundation on 22nd January 2019. Mr. Pravin Ujekar delivered the lecture on different skills to determine the goals and direction to become success in life. He pointed out that technical and soft skills are both important for the achievement of predetermined goals. He explained with various example that how different abilities like positive attitude, proper utilization of your inner strengths, time management, and decision-making abilities are important to make the journey of your life successful.
