Report on "Preparation of MPSC Exam"

The Personality Development and Competitive Exam Department works for the personality development of students. While pursuing the degree, the students should read more and more books, listen to the important lectures on various general topics, and attempt the general knowledge tests. This department arranges the programmes that help the students' all-round development.

This year, the department organized a function regarding the preparation of competitive exams for the students. A lecture by Vijeta Academy, and Universal Academy Kolhapur, was arranged for the students. Dated January 10, 2019;

Many activities for students' personal development have been organized by the department's head and members. Dr. S.N. Jarandikar, a department member, assisted the department, and acting principals Late Shri H.P. Shinde and Dr.V.A. Mane provided guidance.
