Detail Report: 1) The Literary Association of the college always believes in linguistic inclusiveness. It tries to inculcate respect for each language as a mean of communication and celebrates the commemorative days. In association with this the college celebrated 14 th September, 2022 as the Hindi Din to commemorate the event as on 14 th September, 1949 the Indian constitution declared Hindi language as the national language of India. On this occasion various classroom based activities were conducted. The celebration began by reading a poem of one of the famous contemporary Hindi poets, Mangesh Dabral. The students participated in the quiz based on completion of Hindi Proverbs, translation of Marathi Words into Hindi and speeches in Hindi language. The class of B.Com II Division B specially participated in it. The programme was anchored in Hindi by Saloni Gajanan Kajave and was coordinated by Nisha Dadarao Sonavane.
